

Finally, we can see the latest version of the Buty Jordan Sklep brand. In their performance model, Jumpman has been accustomed to some fast turn for the better. Now, we see the most detailed picture of the upcoming Air Jordan XXXII.

Although this is only a side view, Buty Jordan Damskie but here many people will harvest. The first is the return of the double building. There will still be a mixture of leather and knitted. Similar to the previous style, XXXII will use more leather, heel, Flyknit or surface weave knitted front foot and midfoot. In addition, the knitting part of the establishment and significant support function to this shoe looks very reminiscent of KD 10 and KD 9 models. See these two sports shoes are not lack of locking and support, this is a good sign.
