

The Best Jordans Shoes Gatorade “Orange Peel” is a highlight and hallmark of this partnership and serves to commemorate the fruitful association between the pair. Quite specifically, these sneakers are made in remembrance of the orange flavor brand of the company’s products. The presentation of the Air Jordan 1 Gatorade “Orange Peel” is simply unrivalled as it is shipped in a bold elegant box with the caption “Be Like Mike”, similar to the one on the interior of the shoes as well. The message is almost a nostalgic reminder of that famous 1992 Gatorade commercial that bore a similar title.

The Latest Jordans Shoes are predominantly orange in color and this laid-back colorway takes up the upper body in its entirety with similarly but brighter colored laces working their way spectacularly around a bulging tongue. And just preceding it, are artistic perforations that liven up the exterior of this premium orange-esque leather. This exterior terminates into a stunning midsole that is made from a darker uniform shade of the same orange color.

The interior, on the other hand, is a sight for sore eyes as it features a dark green bold insole that is complemented perfectly by a trademark Gatorade logo which also adorns the bottom of the ripple-inspired sole. The inside of the tongue also deviates from the orange dominance and takes on an elegant silver color scheme that spruces up the overall look. The Jordan release 2017 sees yet another classy Cheap Jordan Shoes enter the fold with the sneakers set to be flagged off onto the retail scene on the 26th of December at commendable $ 175 per pair. So if you were thinking of the perfect Boxing Day gift for someone special, then The Air Jordan 1 Gatorade “Orange Peel” is a more than worthy contender.