

In the Latest Jordans Shoes Lookbook, we got a look at numerous shoes that have an upcoming release, but we also got a look at a shoe we've never seen before. This edition of the Jordan XI is blacked out, with a textured upper instead of the Patent Leather we're used to. The pair was modeled exclusively by women, so we are to assume that this may be a women's exclusive pair, assumedly for the Holiday season. Stick with Sneakerwatch for more info as it is announced.

Best Jordans Shoes seems to be making 2017 the year of the Bordeaux, with multiple Jordans releasing in the colorway that originally popped up on the Jordan VII. With the Jordan XII and XIII hitting stores in the colorway, the Jordan V looks to be joining it with a premium edition. The Pinnacle edition of the V utilizes a Bordeaux leather upper with Tan Quilted insole and a Milky white outsole. Look for the shoe to hit stores in December for $400.

With Cheap Jordan Shoes's new silo on the way, we're starting to see a lot more colorways being leaked. Before LeBron took the stage on Thursday at the Nike x Kith show, he took to Instagram to show off a brand new colorway of the LeBron XV. Featuring a tannish Battleknit upper with a brown pull and back tab, it is accented by the sole unit, which is tan with speckles. We don't have a pinpointed release date, but look for these to hit stores in October at a $185 price tag. Stick with Sneakerwatch for more info as it is announced.
